DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-5, drawn to a method of producing a transformed plant comprising transforming a plant with a gene encoding a DNA binding protein that binds to a stress-responsive element contained in a stress-responsive promoter that regulates the transcription of a gene located downstream of the element is ligated downstream of the stress-responsive promoter, classified in class 800, subclass 278, for example.
- II. Claims 6-10, drawn to a transformed plant comprising transforming a plant with a gene encoding a DNA binding protein that binds to a stress-responsive element contained in a stress-responsive promoter that regulates the transcription of a gene located downstream of the element is ligated downstream of the stress-responsive promoter, classified in class 435, subclass 468, for example.

Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the transgenic plant can be made by another materially different process, such as isolation of a plant cell from a transgenic plant and subsequent regeneration into a transgenic plant. A transgenic plant can also be obtained through cross hybridization between a non-transformed plant with a transformed plant and subsequent isolation of a transgenic plant from the segregating transgenic progeny.

Claims 2-5 and 7-10 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: rd29A gene promoter, rd29B gene promoter, rd17 gene promoter, rd22 gene promoter, DREB1A gene promoter, cor6.6 gene promoter, cor15a gene promoter, erd1 gene promoter, kin1 gene promoter, for claims 2, 5, 7 and 10; DREB1A gene, DREB1B gene, DREB1C gene, DREB1D gene, DREB1E gene, DREB1F gene, DREB2A gene, DREB2B gene, DREB2C gene, DREB2D gene, DREB2E gene, DREB2F gene, DREB2G gene and DREB2H gene for claims 3, 4, 8 and 9. The species are independent or distinct because these species are made up of nucleic acid sequences which are chemically and structurally distinct compounds. Applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from elected claims, even though this requirement is traversed. In the instant case, one promoter species and one gene encoding the DNA binding protein species must also be elected with the elected Group of claims. Applicants are advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Vinod Kumar whose telephone number is (571) 272-4445. The examiner can normally be reached on 8.30 a.m. to 5.00 pm.
